CUSTOMS MEMORANDUM ORDER
NO. 01-92

In line with the Bureau's drive to generate more revenues from non-traditional sources, the Deputy Commissioner for Revenue Collection Monitoring Group is hereby authorized to create special teams with proper mission orders* to inspect the premises, books and records of Customs Bonded Warehouses in order to determine whether there have been illegal withdrawals and/or other violations of the Tariff and Customs Code of the Philippines. For control and monitoring purposes, the Office of the Commissioner of Customs shall be furnished copies of the list or composition of the Task Forces, the mission orders issued, and reports on the missions undertaken together with the appropriate recommendations.

This Order shall take effect immediately and shall last until revoked.
