Dear Commissioner Guerrero:

Greetings!

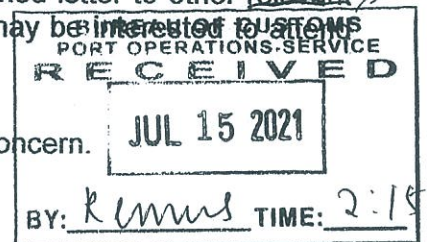

The Office for Transportation Security (OTS) is pleased to extend the invitation from the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) to the virtual Global Aviation Security Symposium (AVSEC2021) to be held virtually on September 8-10, 2021.

The Symposium, with the theme "AVSEC: Business NOT as usual", will impart insights from the lessons learned, including the challenges and opportunities, brought by the COVID-19 pandemic, and how States develop resilience for future crises. There will also be discussions on the significance of innovations and technological advancements in response to emerging issues as well as tools to enhance human capabilities and competencies that would contribute to strengthening security posture and culture.

The last day will be allotted for the commemoration of the 20th Anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, which will provide a forum for high level discussion on the progress of the aviation industry and the continuous development and establishment of effective security measures to mitigate risks and prevent similar attacks in the future.

Accordingly, the event will be held free-of-charge for all participants. Additional information and online registration can be accessed through <https://www.icao.int/Meetings/AVSEC2021/Pages/default.aspx>. Registration can be done until August 18, 2021.

Likewise, we seek your assistance in disseminating the attached letter to other relevant agencies and industry within your sphere of influence, who may be interested to attend the said symposium.

Thank you for your continuous support on matters of mutual concern.

Very truly yours,

USEC. RAUL N. DEL ROSARIO
Administrator
