WRIT OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

TO: BUREAU OF CUSTOMS,
DISTRICT COLLECTORS OF
THE PORTS OF MANILA,
NORTH HARBOR and SOUTH
HARBOR

GREETINGS:

A petition was filed before this Court, Regional Trial Court, Branch Eleven, Manila, with the above entitled case against defendants Bureau of Customs, the District Collectors of the Ports of Manila, North Harbor and South Harbor, in their capacities as the incumbent District Collectors for the Ports of Manila, North and South Harbor, praying that a Writ of Preliminary Injunction be issued restraining the defendants from implementing 1) NFA Memorandum Circular No. AO-2K13-03-003; 2) seizing, alerting, and/or holding plaintiff's rice shipments referred in this petition, which the plaintiff may acquire by sale or by importation after the filing of this Petition; 3) implementing any Alert Orders, Hold Orders, and issuances and/or refusing to lift any such orders or issuances in relation to plaintiff's rice shipments referred in this petition and those shipments, similarly situated as those in the petition, which the plaintiff may acquire by sale or by importation after the filing of this petition; and 4) doing any act that would prejudice plaintiff while the propriety and validity of its actions as enumerated in the preceding paragraphs, are still at issue and subject to judicial determination.

On January 23, 2014, the application for Writ of Preliminary Injunction was GRANTED by the Court. Applicant posted a bond for the Injunctive Writ in the amount of TEN MILLION PESOS (PHP10,000,000.00) thru Visayan Surety and Insurance Corporation under Bond No. V.S. & I.C. No. V-JA-2014/522 which was duly approved by this Court.

NOW, THEREFORE, defendants Bureau of Customs, the District Collectors of the Ports of Manila, North Harbor and South Harbor, in their capacities as the incumbent District Collectors for the Ports of Manila, North and South Harbor and all persons acting for and in their behalf and all their agents from 1) implementing NFA Memorandum Circular No. AO-2K13-03-003; 2) seizing, alerting, and/or holding plaintiff's rice shipments referred in this petition, which the plaintiff may acquire by sale or by importation after the filing of this Petition; 3) implementing any Alert Orders, Hold Orders, and issuances and/or refusing to lift any such orders or issuances in relation to Plaintiff's rice shipments referred in this Petition and those shipments, similarly situated as those in the Petition, which the plaintiff may acquire by sale or by importation after the filing of this Petition; and 4) doing any act that would prejudice plaintiff while the propriety and validity of its actions as enumerated in the preceding paragraphs, are still at issue and subject to judicial determination.
