18.A.173

Brussels, 14 September 2018.

Dear Director General.

As you will be aware, the review of the Revised Kyoto Convention (RKC) was discussed at both the recent Policy Commission and Council sessions held in Brussels during the week of 25 to 30 June 2018. The Council agreed with the recommendation of the Policy Commission that such a review, expected to last in the region of three years, should be carried out.

It is important that the review is carried out by experienced staff with a good knowledge of the existing RKC and the requirements necessary to bring the Convention in line with modern Trade and Customs procedures and practice.

I am writing to you to invite nominations for two temporary posts, funded from WCO Reserves, to assist in carrying out the Review of the RKC. The candidate must have an excellent knowledge of the RKC and Customs procedures including automated procedures and the use of automation in Customs.

The contract offered to the successful candidate will include a salary equivalent to that of a Technical Officer (Grade A3 step1). The person appointed will be included in the WCO medical insurance scheme. However, no other allowances will apply. The successful candidate will be assisted with a visa application.

The candidate should be fluent in either English or French, with a good knowledge of the other language.

Should you wish to propose a candidate for these posts, then kindly inform me by Friday 19 October 2018 and return the attached application form duly completed by the candidate.

Yours sincerely,

thele

Ricardo Treviño Chapa.
