LIABILITY WAIVER and RACE AGREEMENT

1. While every reasonable precaution will be undertaken by the organizers to ensure the participants' safety, it is understood that the participants are fully aware of the risks involved and run at their own risk. The organizers, their staff and/or sponsors shall not be responsible for any injury, liability or death arising from training or occurring during participation in the race.
2. Runners may share the road with bikers and a few vehicles so must take all the necessary precautions when running the race.
3. Participants must wear the assigned race bib number in front of his/her shirt. Runners not wearing the same will be disallowed from joining the race.
4. A participant must retire from the race if required to do so by any member of the medical staff. He/she must inform the organizers or their representatives if they intend to pull out of the race.
5. Once registration is accepted, there will be no entry fee refund for participants who, for whatever reason, do not eventually take part in the race. Likewise, there will be no entry fee refund if the event is cancelled or postponed on account of force majeure or for other causes beyond the control of the race organizers.
6. The organizers reserve the right to use any photographs, motion pictures, recordings or any other media recordings for any legitimate purpose including commercial advertising without giving monetary consideration to the participant.
7. The race organizers may, at any time, modify race rules and guidelines before, during or after the event, and the official race route for the benefit of the participants.
8. The race takes place rain or shine, unless an announcement of cancellation via the official event page is made at least 24 hours before October 30, 2016 gun start.
9. The race organizer's decision is final.

I hereby declare that I fully understand and agree to the terms of the above. I guarantee that I am physically fit and have no medical condition/s whatsoever that may hinder me from participating in the race.
