MEMORANDUM TO:

Atty. ISAURO C. GARCIA
Deputy Commissioner of Customs

This Office has received reports that the Customs Consumers Cooperative, Inc. has been selling food and other items at a price level comparable to those sold by other stores/establishment within and around the customs premises, in violation of its undertaking to sell at lower prices. In view whereof, you are hereby directed to cause a review of the concessions given to the Cooperative in the form of free light and water, reduced rent, and other privileges under its contract with BOC.
