 NOV 29 2018

In connection with the Strategic Plan 2018-2022 (Strat Plan), as circulated through Customs Memorandum Circular No. 133-2018, an annual review of the Strat Plan must be conducted every end of the year to monitor the accomplishment of the activities. It can be recalled that the implementation of the promulgated activities listed in the Strat Plan were assigned under the leadership of the respective Deputy Commissioners and District Collectors.

Hence, it is hereby directed that all Deputy Commissioners and all District Collectors shall determine the actual status of the activities assigned to their respective offices. Further, the status for each activity shall be reflected in the attached Strat Plan Compliance Form and shall be submitted to the Planning and Policy Research Division on or before 15 December 2018.

For strict compliance.
