CUSTOMS MEMORANDUM ORDER

NO. 8-2000

TO : All Deputy Commissioners
Service Chiefs
District Collectors
Collectors of Customs
Heads of Divisions/Units
All Bureau Personnel
All Others Concerned

RE : Wearing of Identification Cards within Customs Premises

In order to strengthen the physical security in the customs zone and for easy identification of persons allowed access therein, all are advised to properly display their BOC Identification Cards, PPA Pass or Temporary Visitor's Pass issued by the Enforcement and Security Service (ESS) while within customs premises.

The ESS is hereby directed to submit the list of all persons who do not comply with this Customs Memorandum Order to the OIC, Customs Intelligence & Investigation Service, Attn.: Internal Inquiry and Prosecution Division (for BOC personnel) or Attn.: Investigation and Prosecution Division (for non-BOC personnel), detailing the time, place and circumstances of the violation.

For strict compliance.

CMO - 8 - 2000

DISPOSITION FORM

FOR : The Commissioner of Customs FROM : The Officer-in-Charge
Intelligence & Enforcement Group
DATE : 21 July 2000

SUBJECT : Draft CMO on Wearing of Identification Cards within Customs Premises

SUMMARY :

1. Reference : Meeting with the ESS and CHS Officials held on July 21, 2000 at the ESS Conference Room.
2. Ref. to par. 1, the ESS and CHS Officials met with the undersigned to discuss the security plans in the customs zone.
3. During the meeting it was decided that a joint operation between CHS and ESS personnel should be made in order to strengthen the physical security in the customs zone at the different ports in Metro Manila (POM, MICP and NAIA).
4. That a draft CMO was made so that the wearing of proper Identification Cards within Customs premises should be strictly implemented.

RECOMMENDATION :

5. Approval of par. 4.

If in accord, attached is a draft CMO for his signature.
