CUSTOMS ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER (CAO)

NO. 04-2019

SUBJECT: DUTY DRAWBACK, REFUND AND ABATEMENT

---

Introduction. This CAO implements Sections 900 to 902, Chapter 1, Sections 903 to 913, Chapter 2, Title IX, and other related Sections of Republic Act No. 10863, otherwise known as the Customs Modernization and Tariff Act (CMTA).

Section 1. Scope. This CAO covers Duty Drawback and Refund for overpayment, Abatement of duties and taxes and other Refunds including those arising from final decisions in protest cases, judicial decisions, special laws, and Executive or Presidential issuances.

Section 2. Objectives.

- 2.1. To provide streamlined guidelines on the application, processing, approval, and payment of Duty Drawback and Refunds;
- 2.2. To prescribe the form and manner of payment of claims for tax credits and Refunds; and
- 2.3. To simplify the process on the utilization and revalidation of Tax Credit Certificates.

Section 3. Definition of Terms. For purposes of this CAO, the following terms are defined accordingly:

- 3.1. Abatement — shall refer to reduction of duties and taxes payable on imported goods on account of loss, damage, shortage, defect and other similar circumstances as defined in the law.<sup>1</sup>
- 3.2. Duty Drawback — shall refer to the Refund or credit of duties, and may include internal revenue taxes, actually paid for the importation, in whole or in part.<sup>2</sup>

3.3. Refund — shall refer to the return, in whole or in part, of duties and taxes resulting from an overpayment or erroneous payment<sup>3</sup> or overcharged as a result of an error in assessment<sup>4</sup>.

3.4. Tax Credit Certificate (TCC) — shall refer to certification duly issued to the grantee-importer named therein by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative acknowledging that the grantee-importer named therein is legally entitled tax credit, the money value of which may be used in payment or in satisfaction of any of his customs duty or tax obligations or may be converted as a cash refund<sup>5</sup>.

3.5. Tax Debit Memorandum (TDM) — shall refer to the document authorizing the utilization of the TCC as payment for customs duties or tax obligations of the grantee-importer. A TCC cannot be utilized as payment for duty or taxes without a duly approved TDM<sup>6</sup>.

Section 4. General Provisions on Duty Drawback.

4.1. When Allowed. An importer may apply for Duty Drawback under the following situations:

4.1.1. Up to a maximum of ninety-nine percent (99%) of the duty imposed by law, for all fuel imported into the Philippines used for propulsion of:

- a. Sea vessel engaged in international trade;
- b. Sea vessel engaged in coastwise trade, provided that the Maritime Industry Authority (MARINA) or any appropriate government agency has authorized the temporary conversion of that vessel to engage in international trade; and
- c. Scheduled international airlines.<sup>7</sup>

4.1.2. Up to a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the duty imposed by law for petroleum oils and oils obtained from bituminous materials, crude oil imported by non-electric utilities, sold directly or indirectly, in the same form or after

- b. The goods are returned either to the supplier or other persons designated by the supplier subject to the following conditions:
  - i. The goods have not been worked, repaired, or used in the country of importation, and are re-exported, within a reasonable time, but which in no case, shall not be later than three (3) months from importation; and
  - ii. The goods have not been worked, repaired, or used in the country to which they were exported and are re-imported within a reasonable time, but which in no case, shall not be later than three (3) months from exportation.

Provided, however, that the use of the goods shall not hinder the Refund if such use was indispensable to discover the defects or other circumstances which caused the re-exportation or re-importation of the goods.<sup>22</sup>

6.1.5. For dead or injured animals, under the following conditions:

- a. It is certified by the importer, under pain of penalty for falsification or perjury and upon proof satisfactory to the Bureau that an animal subject of importation dies or suffers injury before arrival, or while in customs custody; and
- b. The carcass on board or in customs custody is removed and disposed under the conditions prescribed by the concerned regulatory agency and at the expense of the importer.<sup>23</sup>

6.2. Requirement of Examination Report. In all cases of Abatement or Refund of duties and taxes, the Customs Officer concerned shall submit an examination report, as to any fact discovered which indicates any discrepancy and cause the corresponding adjustment on the goods declaration.<sup>24</sup>

6.3. Other Conditions on Abatement or Refund of Duties and Taxes.

6.3.1. When goods have not yet been released for consumption or have been placed under another customs procedure, provided that no other offense or violation has been committed, the declarant shall neither be required to pay the duties and taxes nor be entitled to Refund thereof in any of the following cases:

- a. When, at the request of the declarant, the goods are expressly abandoned, or as determined by the Bureau, the goods are destroyed or rendered commercially valueless while under customs control. Any cost herein incurred shall be borne by the declarant;
- b. When goods are destroyed or irrecoverably lost by accident or force majeure. The remaining waste or scrap after destruction, if taken into consumption, shall be subject to the duties and taxes that would be applicable on such waste or scrap if imported in the same state; and
- c. When there are shortages due to the nature of the goods.<sup>25</sup>

- 6.3.2. As an alternative to re-exportation or re-importation, when the defective goods are expressly abandoned or destroyed or rendered commercially valueless under customs control as the Bureau may decide, the importer shall not be entitled to an Abatement or a Refund if it does not defray the costs of such abandonment, destruction, or rendition.<sup>26</sup>
- 6.3.3. Except as otherwise provided, no Abatement of duties shall be made on account of damage incurred or deterioration suffered during the voyage of importation; and duties will be assessed on the actual quantity imported as determined by the Customs Officers concerned.<sup>27</sup>
- 6.3.4. Documentary Requirements. All applications for Abatement or Refund shall be supported by the following proof of importation:
- a. Import Entry;
  - b. Bill of Lading;
  - c. Commercial Invoice;
  - d. Packing List; and
  - e. Certification from Supplier or Short-Landed Certificate or Bad Order Survey, as the case may be.

Section 7. Common Provisions.

- 7.1. Verification of Payment. Prior to the approval, the Bureau shall verify that all duties and taxes subject of the claim were duly paid and remitted to the Bureau of Treasury.
- 7.2. No Outstanding Obligation. The Bureau shall likewise ensure that claimant has no outstanding obligation, which means that the claimant must settle the outstanding obligation before approval of the claim. The Bureau shall strictly implement the regular submission of Statement of Accounts from the Collection Districts of importer or claimants who regularly files a claim for Duty Drawback or tax credit and Refund.

Informational Section.

1. History.

Drawback

Applications for duty drawback are being processed by the OSS-CENTER DOF, pursuant to Administrative Order No. 226. The OSS-CENTER reviews the claim and prepares an Evaluation Report with its recommendation, which is then transmitted to the Bureau for approval. The Bureau in turn, verifies the payment of duties and taxes, including the computation of duty drawback amount.

Refund

There are no existing implementing rules or CAO or CMO being followed in the processing of applications for refund, other than CAO 5-92 and the provisions of the TCCP itself, save for the manner of payment or cash refund of VAT, pursuant to EO 68-A, and utilization of TCCs. Applications for refund include overpayment, excess or double payment, unutilized advanced deposits, release of cash bond, refund arising from final decisions in protest cases, judicial decisions, special laws and executive/Presidential issuances, including payment of VAT or Excise Tax refund duly approved by the BIR.
