MEMORANDUM

TO : All District and Port Collectors
All Formal and Informal Entry Chiefs
Risk Management Office
All Others Concerned

SUBJECT : Suspension of Green Lane in Selectivity System

DATE : 22 September 2017

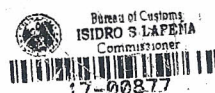

Pursuant to Section 301 of RA 10863 or the "Customs Modernization and Tariff Act" (CMTA), pertaining to Customs Control Over Goods, which mandates the Bureau to employ audit-based controls and risk management systems, use automation to the fullest extent possible, and adopt a compliance measurement strategy to support risk management; and Executive Order No. 836 or the "Transforming the Risk Management Group of the Bureau of Customs into the Risk Management Office", which empowers the Commissioner to impose additional functions to the Risk Management Office (RMO), to ensure that the aims and objectives of the bureau are achieved, the Green Lane of the Selectivity System shall be suspended while the Risk Management Selectivity System is undergoing evaluation and pending the issuance of new rules regarding selectivity parameters.

The Chief of the Risk Management Office (RMO) is hereby instructed to update the Selectivity System and set the default lane to YELLOW.

Furthermore, the Chiefs of Formal and Informal Entry Divisions thru their respective District Collectors, are ordered to report to this office, copy furnish the RMO, of any information on any entry lodged under the Green Lane after the issuance of this Memorandum.

For strict and immediate compliance.
