The Office of the Chief-of-Staff and Deputy Commissioner, IAG has received reports that dishonorable individuals have been using her name and office to exact favors, collect "tara", and perform other illegal activities.

For the information of everyone, especially the stakeholders, the above-signed did not and will not authorize anyone to perform such condemnable activities. The designations, promotions and personnel orders are not for sale, and are being issued in accordance with the policy directions of the Commissioner.

The above-signed further calls out the apparent concerted effort to derail and discredit this administration's anti-corruption agenda through the use of baseless, malicious and harmful white papers.

All stakeholders, BOC officials and employees are requested to cooperate with the anti-corruption campaign of this administration by rejecting these individuals and immediately reporting them to the Office of the Commissioner or the Office of the Deputy Commissioner, IAG.
