MEMORANDUM to:

ALL Customs Officials and Employees

This is to inform that certain unscrupulous people may have been using the name of the Commissioner of Customs to extort money or gain favors from those having interests in matters pending with or involving this Bureau and in the facilitation thereof to cause disinformation, nuisance or disruption in the rendition of business in this Bureau in its normal and regular course.

Such acts are not authorized, tolerated or countenanced by the undersigned and should be reported to his Office for appropriate legal action.

For your information and guidance.

ALBERTO D. LINA
Commissioner
