Consistent with the BOC's vision of a modernized and credible Customs Administration, Aduana Updates was recently launched on April 16, 2021. Aduana Updates is a weekly show produced by TVQ2 network, hosted by Presidential Communications Operations Office Undersecretary Nino Padilla, and co-hosted by BOC Assistant Commissioner Atty. Vincent Philip Maronilla. It aims to provide stakeholders updates of the BOC's operations, procedures, and accomplishments for ease of doing business with the Bureau.

In line with this program, all Deputy Commissioners, District Collectors, Service Directors, Division Chiefs are hereby required to participate in the program as guests which will be shot every Friday and aired every Monday. Instructions shall be communicated the Public Information and Assistance Division (PIAD) through the Local Public Information Officers (PIOs) of the concerned Ports and Offices. All Local PIOs shall also submit and provide updates on all significant port achievements and processes for the corresponding week which their port will be selected as guests.

For strict compliance.
