TO: The District Commander

WHEREAS, on August 3, 2022, fifty (50) boxes of Food Supplement-Zinc 25mg containing ninety (90) tablets per box were brought by Mr. Sungmin Kim, Korean passenger with Passport No. M58633188, at Kalibo International Airport via T-way Flight No. TW 139 with Aircraft Registry No. HL8354;

WHEREAS, during the examination at the Customs lane, Mr. Kim informed Customs Examiner Abdull Allan G. Basher that he brought the subject goods to be distributed to his colleague. The Customs Examiner then requested his Customs Baggage Declaration Forms (CBDF) together with his passport, wherein the subject goods were not declared on the CBDF;

WHEREAS, upon verification by the Customs Examiner from Mr. Kim, it was found out that the subject goods were not covered with permit/clearances from the Food and Drug Administration or any other pertinent documents relative to the importation of the subject goods;

WHEREAS, Customs Examiner Basher conducted 100% physical examination on the subject goods witnessed by Mr. Kim and ESS-CPD personnel. The actual examination of the goods yielded fifty (50) boxes of Food Supplement-Zinc 25mg containing ninety (90) tablets per box;

WHEREAS, in a Disposition Form dated August 8, 2022 of Port Collector Caliph Q. Dagpin of BOC-KIA received by this Office on August 12, 2022, he reported to the District Collector his findings and recommended that the subject goods be seized for lack of Import Permit/Clearances from Food and Drug Administration or any other pertinent documents relative to the importation of the subject goods;
