MAY 05 2023

SUBJECT : REVOCATION OF THE MEMORANDUM DATED 30 JANUARY 2023 OF THE FORMER ACTING COMMISSIONER YOGI FILEMON L. RUIZ ON THE TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RAW MATERIALS LIQUIDATION SYSTEM AND SECTION 3.4 OF CUSTOMS MEMORANDUM ORDER NO. 17-2021

DATE : 28 April 2023

Relative to the recommendation of the Bonds Division, Port of Manila, and as concurred by the Deputy Commissioners of the Management Information System and Technology Group and Assessment and Operations Coordinating Group, the Memorandum dated 30 January 2023, issued by the former Acting Commissioner Yogi Filemon L. Ruiz, temporarily suspending the implementation of the Raw Materials Liquidation System (RMLS) and Section 3.4 of Customs Memorandum Order No. 17-2021, is hereby revoked.

Consequently, the provision of Section 3.4 of CMO No. 07-2021 should be strictly observed as to the expiration of the approved bond policies, to wit:

"3.4. Approved bond policies filed on the current year will expire on the 31st day of December of the calendar year."

Further, the RMLS shall continue to roll out to other ports for implementation.

All issuances contrary to the foregoing are hereby ordered nullified.

For strict and immediate compliance.
